5. A young man went for studies in Europe in 2012 leaving his wife and one child back home with his parents. He completed and came back in 2018. He found his wife waiting for him with his parents, however; she now had three children, two others being born in his absence. He vowed never to continue with the marriage but his parents insisted that the lady didn't make such a big mistake to warrant divorce. Assess this whole scenario based on the characteristics of true love.
